Subject: South Carolina Farm Bureau Women's Conference

Margee:

I wanted to touch base with you on our State Women's Conference in September. I had spoken with you during the later part of February and you provided me with several workshops ideas that you have done in the past.

We have decided on the "Who Moved My Cheese" workshop. (Our staff at SCFB has gone through this workshop and I think the timing is perfect for the women in South Carolina.) What time frame do you need to typically present this workshop? Tentatively, we have you down for 9:00 a.m. - 10:45 a.m. on Wednesday, September 19. We are a little flexible on the time slots so let me know if you will need more time. Also, please let me know of any AV needs that you may have.

The audience will be approximately 60-75 Farm Bureau Women between the ages of 30 - 75. (Most being 45 years old and older.)

The conference will take place at the Sheraton Hotel and Conference Center in Columbia. If you will let me know your flight schedule, we will arrange to have a member of the SCFB Staff meet you at the airport. The conference begins Tuesday evening, September 18, with a banquet at 7:00 p.m. If your schedule permits we would like to have you join us.

Our conference theme this year is "Volunteers Make Visions a Reality." Just to give you some background information, the women are looking at replacing our state queen's contest with an ambassador program that would be open to both males and females. However, most women are dead set against this change! There are also other changes that are slowly taking place as with other Farm Bureaus across the country. My hope is that this workshop will show the ladies that change is essential for staying effective as an organization and that they do not have to be afraid of change. I sure hope the workshop will make a difference in our program and prepare the women to be ready when change takes place.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions. I look forward to seeing you in September!
