Tax Policies to Promote Saving and Investment. During the first six months of 2003, ACCF lobbyists had contact with various covered officials in Congress and the Administration to advocate proposals to repeal or reform the estate tax, measures to enhance pension saving vehicles, and provisions to reduce the tax rate on dividends and capital gains. These initiatives would promote greater saving and investment and mitigate the bias in the tax code against capital formation. ACCF lobbying efforts included discussing the estate tax repeal and reform bills and proposals, pension reform legislation, and proposals to cut tax rates on dividends and capital gains with covered officials in Congress and the Administration and providing background material on these issues.
